

Leaham Aug. 6. 1841.

My Dear Friend:

I write to give you this timely notice that I shall expect you to provide editorial for the Non-Resistant of the fourth Wednesday in this month - the one after the next. I think I am entitled to ^a little help now & then - & the readers to a little variety. I shall not expect you to write very often for it - but once in two or three months I shall not think it previous to you to ask you for two or three of our small columns. The truth is, the A.R. is getting a dead bore to me, & sometimes I am almost desponding - edly to write that it might just as well. But with an occasional A.R. from you & the other friends I will try to keep it along for the present. Garrison does everything for it except editorial. Are there not some passages in your travels which may illustrate non-resistance principles?

At all events I know that you can easily write one or two articles in the course of ten days. And I expect you to lay yourself out to have them crack over. Your copy should be sent to the office by Thursday, before publication; i.e. by a week from next Thursday.

You had better advise with some of the N.R. Com. in town & fix the day for the Annual Meeting in Sept. —. It has been generally somewhere about the last Wednesday. I think the meeting should be notified in the paper after the next perhaps, in the very next Liberator.
If there is anything stirring, pray delighted me - for secure a pleasure leaves through the posturing clockwork at hand, me this respectable man. Who is going to Hautin's next week? Not you, I fear. How is Harry?

I trust bettering. Will you not be able to come and spend a day with us before the hot weather is over. You can come out in the cars at 10 A.M.
& return at 5 P.M. And who knows how Judge Haines house may strike you in summer. The house may be a little out of repair - but where on earth can you expect to find such a neighbourhood? It is a mere temptation to Providence to let such a charm go by. But at all events let us have the day. Love to all. Farewell.

 Truly Yours Edmund Quincy.
 M. W. Chapman.
